

Call Merging Scam Alert:

A New Fraud on the Rise

Don't let fraudsters merge their way into yours

HOW THIS SCAM WORKS

You receive a call, often from a familiar or official-sounding number, claiming to be from your bank or a service provider

The fraudster tricks you into merging the call with another "automated verification" or "customer service call

During the merged call, the scammer steals your OTP and use it to steal money from your account or complete fraudulent transactions.
