FAKE TRADING APP TRAP

If an app guarantees fixed returns it's probably a scam

Fake trading apps lure investors by showing fake profits to build trust. When users try to withdraw money, scammers demand extra charges or taxes and then disappear, leaving the victim unable to recover the funds.

BE SAFE AGAINST FAKE TRADING APPS

IGNORE GUARANTEED PROFIT CLAIMS

Promises of high or risk-free returns are a major red flag.

TEST WITHDRAWALS EARLY

If a platform delays or blocks withdrawals, it could be a scam.

VERIFY BEFORE YOU INVEST

Check if the platform is registered with Securities and Exchange Board of India (SEBI).
