AI DOESN'T KEEP SECRETS

Don't Train AI with Your Secrets

Anything you type—passwords, office data, customer details, or documents—can be stored or reused beyond your control, What feels like a quick prompt can turn into a data risk. Once shared, sensitive information cannot always be taken back.

HOW TO SECURE AI USE

Recognize AI Infallibility

Due to the quality of their training data, AI can be biased, manipulated, or simply incorrect.

Protect Sensitive Information

Don't share confidential data,No passwords or OTPs, Avoid personal information

Verify AI Outputs

Always do Cross-reference with trusted data sources, and diligent verification among your peers.

Smart Tools Need Smart Use

If it's official, personal, or confidential — don't enter it into AI.
