I - INTRODUCTION AND OBJECTIVE

1. While announcing the Monetary Policy Statement 2013-14, on 03-05-2013, the Governor of The Reserve Bank of India (RBI) made a mention about creation of “The Depositor Education and Awareness Fund Scheme”. Subsequently, to implement the announcement made, the Banking Regulation Act, 1949 has been amended and Section 26A has been inserted in the Act empowering RBI to establish the Depositor Education and Awareness Fund. The Scheme has been notified in the Official Gazette on May 24, 2014.
2. Under the provisions of this section, the Bank shall transfer to the DEA Fund (the Fund) the amounts becoming due in each calendar month (i.e., proceeds of the in-operative accounts and balances remaining unclaimed for 10 years or more) as specified in the Scheme, and the interest accrued on interest bearing accounts till the date of transfer, during the last five working days of the subsequent month
3. The Fund shall be utilized for promotion of depositors’ interest and for such other purposes which may be necessary for the promotion of depositors’ interests as specified by RBI from time to time.
4. The Reserve Bank of India had advised all the Banks to put in place a suitable system to facilitate smooth transfer of such identified amounts to the Fund on a monthly basis.
5. This policy has been framed to ensure compliance with the RBI instructions.

V - CLAIMS FROM THE DEPOSITORS / CUSTOMERS

1. In case of demand from a customer / depositor whose unclaimed amount / deposit had been transferred to Fund, Bank shall repay the customer / depositor, along with interest if applicable, and lodge a claim for refund from the DEA Fund for an equivalent amount paid to the customer / depositor.
  - a) The Bank/ Branches shall contact the Account holder(s) of the unclaimed deposit through letters, email or SMS (if the email and mobile number are registered with the bank). The email/ SMS shall be sent on a quarterly basis.
  - b) In case the whereabouts of the Account holder(s) of the unclaimed deposit are not traceable, the Bank/ Branches shall contact the introducer, if any, who had introduced the account holder to the bank at the time of opening of the account. The Bank/ Branches shall also contact the nominee, if registered, for tracing the customer. The Bank branches shall undertake special drives periodically as and when launched by Head Office, to find out the whereabouts of the customers, their nominees or legal heirs in respect of unclaimed deposits. Such drives shall be utilized for financial literacy to create public awareness, about activation of unclaimed deposits.
  - c) The Bank/ branches/ offices during regular customer meet/s shall include points for discussion to create public awareness about the activation of unclaimed deposits and the prescribed procedure to claim amounts lying therein by a depositor or his/her nominee/ legal heir in case of deceased depositor.
  - d) KYC compliance has to be done as per the guidelines.
2. The interest payable, if any, from the Fund on a claim shall accrue only from the date on which the balance in an account was transferred to the Fund to the date of payment to the customer / depositor. No interest shall be payable in respect of amounts refunded from the Fund, in respect of which no interest was payable by the Bank to its customer / depositor.
3. Rate of interest, if any; payable on the principal amount transferred to the Fund shall be as specified by Reserve Bank from time to time.
4. In the case of a claim for refund of foreign currency denominated deposit accounts, instruments or transactions specified in paragraphs IV.1. (m) and IV.2., irrespective of whether the banks have paid the depositor / customer in Indian rupees or foreign currency, the Banks shall be entitled to claim refund of the eligible amount from the Fund, in Indian rupees only.
5. In case of any claim for refund of amount by the depositor whose account as an unclaimed deposit had been transferred to the DEA Fund, the account shall be revived and shall become operative. Once the repatriation of the balance to the account is completed by Reconciliation Vertical, Operations wing.

The balance shall be credited back to the account along with upto date interest as stipulated by RBI.

- a) The bank shall intimate the unclaimed deposit holders through SMS/ registered email (if email is registered with us) stating that the account has been restituted on the basis of the KYC documents and claim submitted by them. This would alert the account/ unclaimed deposit holder against any possible fraudulent activity in his/her account.
  - b) The banks shall process requests for activation of unclaimed deposits within three working days from the receipt of the complete application.
6. Refunds made by the Bank in each calendar month shall be claimed for reimbursement from the Fund on the last working day of the subsequent month (on the Specified Date).
  7. In the case of Bank under liquidation, during the pendency of the liquidation proceedings, if any claim is received from depositors whose deposits were covered by DICGC insurance at the time of transfer to the Fund, the Fund shall pay to the liquidator, an amount equal to the amount that could have been claimed from DICGC with respect to such deposits, and with respect to all other amounts paid by the liquidator towards the amounts transferred to the Fund, whether insured by DICGC or not, the Fund shall reimburse the liquidator.
  8. The claims / refunds shall be submitted jointly by two Authorized Signatories of the Bank designated for this purpose by the appropriate authorities.
  9. RBI has clarified that where amounts lying in unclaimed deposit accounts have been transferred to the Depositor Education and Awareness Fund could be revived only if such accounts become KYC compliant. Hence an unclaimed deposit account can be operated only if it becomes KYC compliant and the amount has been claimed back through Reconciliation Vertical, Operations Wing, Head Office.

VI - MAINTENANCE OF RECORDS

1. For each tranche transferred to the Fund, bank shall maintain complete details viz., name of customer, account number, amount, including interest accrued, transferred to the Fund, date of transfer to the Fund and other related documents, etc. These details/documents shall be maintained by the banks separately tranche-wise permanently notwithstanding anything contained in the Banking Companies (Period of Preservation of Records) Rules, 1985.
