

Fileless Attacks

A fileless malware attack typically starts with a phish mail containing a payload that automatically establishes contact with the remote hacker.

Cyber thieves then have the ability to launch native apps and navigate the file system.

How to prevent fileless malware attacks?

- 1 Avoid clicking or installing unknown applications & links.
- 2 Update your software

“Invisible Threat Operating in Memory”